THE WORM TURNED KRAMER RETURNS UPON WHITE SOX WITH LAURELS

Nationals Displayed Signs of Naughtiness. Finished First in 17 Out of 21 Matches.

A. E. JACOBSEN TO RESCUE TOOK GRAND PRIX DE PARIS

His Delivery Too Much for Chicago Batters—Anderson Got Two Hits.

Given Handsome Vase From French Government Potteries—Raced in Three Countries in Seven Days.

CHICAGO, July 17.—The clever box work of Albert Edward Jacobsen enabled the Nationals to take the final game of the series from the White Sox yesterday by 4 to 1.

Throughout the contest the youngster had the Chicago players completely baffled and only three hits were made off his delivery. The game would have resulted in a shut-out had not a wild throw of Jacobsen over first base taken an odd bound into the stand.

Dundon was called home early in the day and it was necessary to send Jakob in to take his place. The lanky blonde made the only error that was charged up against the home team, but he got one of the three hits off Jacobsen.

Anderson got two hits. For Washington the only player to get more than one hit was John Anderson, but the visitors bunched their bingles in such a way that every one counted in the scoring.

Up to the fourth neither club could score, but in that round Washington tallied three times. Hickman smacked the ball over Holmes' head for a double and went to third on Anderson's sacrifice. Huelman fanned, but Stahl, a single into left which scored Hickman. Cassidy got a short bingle over second and Heydon rapped a single into right. On a double steal Heydon counted and Jacobson scored.

Jacobson's wild throw in attempting to field Green's ball gave Chicago its only run.

Washington got one in the ninth on a pair of hits and a clever steal.

COMMISSIONERS CLUB TO PLAY PRINTERS

The baseball game between the Commissioners Club and the picked team from the Government Printing Office League tomorrow afternoon at American League Park promises to furnish an interesting contest.

The six teams in the Printers' League will each contribute to the picked nine so that a strong team is sure to uphold the league's end, and Captain Colliflower, for the Commissioners, will play his strongest line-up.

Brown or Keppeler will be in the box for the Printers. Chamberlain will do the backstop work. Adams, first base; LaRambos, second base; Cotter, shortstop; and Chate, third base, will compose the infield, while Webb, Hunt, Hermann, and Quinn will look after the outer gardens.

Dude Gaddy will catch for the Commissioners, and Handiboe, Edmondson, or Cantwell will pitch. Herman, first base; Fitzpatrick, second base; Venable, shortstop; and Vaughn, third base, will make up the infield, while Keane, Hoffman, Brown, and Beall will be the outfielders.

Daughterly, the official umpire of the Government Printing Office League, will officiate, and will call the game promptly at 5 o'clock.

BRITISH OFFICERS SEE FRENCH HORSE RACE

PARIS, July 17.—The officers of the British squadron which is now at Brest were the guests of Premier Rouvier at luncheon at the foreign office today.

Afterward they attended the races at Maisons Laiffite, where the race for the President of the Republic's stakes of 25,000 francs was decided. The winner was Michel Ephrussi's Flasseur, with the American jockey, Nash Turner, up.

NEGRO GIRL FINDS GOLD MINE.

BUTTE, Mont., July 17.—Nannie Brown, eighteen years old, a negro servant, while searching for a stray cow near the Homestead mine, half a mile east of Butte, stumbled into a gopher hole, out of which had been thrown several small particles of quartz in which gold glittered.

Assays show that the rock carries more than $1,000 in gold to the ton. The girl and her employers have staked off the ground.

Canal Officials to Sail for Panama Thursday

President Theodore P. Shonts, Chief Engineer Stevens and Gen. O. H. Ernst, of the Panama Canal Commission, will sail from New York on Thursday next on the steamer Mexico for Panama. Mr. Stevens will arrive in this city tomorrow, and will remain here only long enough to close up his office here.

The headquarters of the canal commission received a dispatch this morning from Governor Magoon, of the canal zone, reporting one additional case of yellow fever, Juan Osage Plerro, a Spaniard, non-employee at Panama. The recovery of August Schimpf, an American employee at Colon, who was taken sick on July 4, was also reported.

J. LEAVITT SMITH SUCCEUMS TO ILLNESS

J. Leavitt Smith, at one time a prominent liverman of this city, died at his home, 140 Binney street northwest, yesterday morning. He had been in feeble health for some time, but the sickness from which he died had not set in till Saturday a week ago.

Mr. Smith was born in Holderness, New Hampshire, in 1855, and lived there until 1885 when he came to Washington. He was, while in his best health, proprietor of the Willard and Arlington hotels' stables. Funeral services were held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at his late home. The Rev. Dr. Reynolds, of the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church, officiating. Interment will be in Oak Hill cemetery. The burial will be private.

OWNER COTTON ACCEPTS SULLIVAN'S CHALLENGE

Will Back Kentucky Rose Against Marian Bidle—Has $250 Forfeit He Is Willing to Post Immediately.

NEW YORK, July 17.—After a brilliant campaign against the best of the European cycle racing men, Frank L. Kramer was still very glad to be back in New Jersey after he landed at Hoboken from the Deutschland last Thursday.

The four times American professional champion met with great success while abroad, and enjoyed a series of triumphs surpassed only by those of that other New Jersey boy, Arthur A. Zimmerman, of Manassas. The newspaper in Europe called Kramer "the unbeatable one," from the great number of times he won match races in straight heats. For winning the Grand Prix de Paris, Kramer was honored by the French cycle racers, and in addition to the large cash prize, received a Sevres vase from the French government porcelain factory.

Won Seventeen Out of Twenty-one. This pleasant, square-jawed, blond youth, who has won the American professional cycle sprinting championship for the past four years, modestly declined to tell just how much European money he had won during his short trip, but did say that he had finished first in seventeen out of twenty-one and match races in which he contested, in addition to having some prizes captured in handicap contests.

He sailed away on the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse on March 7, and during the time he was in Europe he raced in France, England, Italy, Belgium, and Germany. In so great demand did this successful young American become that he tells of one week when he appeared in Italy, France, and Belgium during seven consecutive days, and was in no one city except Antwerp for longer than eight hours, which he seemed to think was doing his best to lead the strenuous life.

Likes Antwerp Track. The track at Antwerp is the one upon which the world's championships are to be run on July 17 to 20 and Kramer was very sorry that he could not remain in Europe so as to compete in them, as he says the course there is exactly to his liking. He won every race in which he started there and took nine heats in succession, but although all were not finals, he says it is a quarter mile track with wooden surface and that the banking on the turns is the best he has ever raced upon. The space immediately at the pole is flat and from there it is banked in what Kramer was pleased to call "whaleback" style, the banking being at 5 degrees. Mr. Kramer told him that he was foolish not to wait over for the world's championships, as he acknowledged that the American would surely win if he competed and escaped the ever possible accident. As Mayer is perhaps the best of the European sprinters this was praise from Sir Hubert indeed.

Took Grand Prix. The greatest race which Kramer captured was the Grand Prix de Paris, as many of the European sprinters would rather win it than the world's championship.

He said that other great American sprinter, Iver Lawson, won it, and then clinched his claims to superiority over the foreigners by winning the world's championship at London, when Marcus L. Hurley, of the New York Athletic Club, took the amateur championship and Robert W. Gray, of Atlanta, captured the paced title. When the Grand Prix was run there was an immense crowd of spectators, variously estimated between 20,000 and 30,000, among whom were M. Merlou, minister of finance, and M. Paul Brousse, president of the Paris municipal council.

Kramer was pitted against Priol, last year's French champion, whom Kramer defeated with ease in Madison Square Garden last winter, and Walter Rutt, the best of the younger German sprinters, who was defeated by Kramer in Paris. Kramer made a last rush and won by less than two feet. M. Merlou had Kramer brought to his box, where he had some champagne to celebrate the victory. Kramer says there were newspaper men at the race and he could change to his street attire.

THE challenge of George F. Sullivan to J. S. Cotton, owner of Kentucky Rose, has stirred up the animals, and if Mr. Sullivan really wants to back Marian Bidle against Kentucky Rose, as he says he does, he can get action.

Mr. Sullivan said in his challenge published in The Times yesterday, that he would stand a chance of losing $250 on a forfeit. He stipulated that if Jockey Wapshire rode the other mare he would give her ten pounds advantage by putting up Jockey Buckley. Another statement from Mr. Sullivan was that he would let the other fellows arrange the details about distance, etc.

Hunting For Sullivan.

Jockey Wapshire and Mr. Cotton sat up and took notice yesterday when they saw the bold words of Mr. Sullivan in The Times and immediately started on a still hunt for that proud owner. They were carting around a bunch of $250, which they were willing to put up right away, at once, immediately, to say that Kentucky Rose would beat the tar out of Marian Bidle.

The scout for Mr. Sullivan was industriously carried on, but they could not find that worthy, and it is being continued today. Jockey Wapshire called at The Times this morning and made a few remarks. Said he:

"We can't catch up with Mr. Sullivan, but have been doing a little gum shoe work to find out who and where he is. His offer looks good to Mr. Cotton, who still has $250 forfeit on a $500 bet to say that in a match race Kentucky Rose will be able to duplicate the feat she performed when she made the killing at Brightwood on July 4, and won again at that track on Friday last."

"We know the nag Marian Bidle, and think and are willing to bet that Kentucky Rose can beat her. Should Mr. Sullivan want to see the color of our coat all he has to do is to see Mr. Cotton at 123 M street southeast, or call him up by phone at 1012 East. We want the race arranged right away, as I am booked to do some riding at the Providence meeting and want to leave Washington tomorrow or next day, unless this special affair is arranged, in which case I will fall over to have a leg up on Kentucky Rose."

There's some money talk, and it is to be hoped that Mr. Sullivan will get busy.

IS ONE TO NONE AS TWO TO ONE?

Trenton Has Puzzle That Recalls "How Old Is Ann?" Does Ball Team Score Twice as Much as Opponent on a 1 to 0 Basis.

TRENTON, N. J., July 17.—Trenton has a midsummer problem as perplexing as the famous "How old is Ann?" query that maddened newspaper readers.

Mayor Katzenbach, ministers of the gospel, doctors, lawyers and politicians are neglecting other matters to discuss it.

The craze started from a heavy wager that the Y. M. C. A. baseball team would score twice as many runs last Wednesday as the Waldrons, the latter leader of the Mercer County League. At the end of the game the score stood 1 to 0.

Immediately a fierce discussion arose and has continued. The papers here today carry columns of opinions from prominent citizens on the wager.

Some say no bet, others say the men betting on the Y. M. C. A. team won. "One is 1,000 per cent more than 0," "It is 100 per cent more, and cannot be considered twice as much." These are samples of the "solutions."

The whole town gave up Sunday to a discussion of the problem.

FENCIBLES TO CELEBRATE BATTLE OF SANTIAGO

In the form of a military supper the surrender of Santiago on July 17, 1898, will be celebrated at the Spanish War Veterans' Hall tonight by the Fencibles of Company C, First District of Columbia Volunteers.

The committee which has charge of the celebration has completed final arrangements and is hopeful that this observance of the day will serve to arouse the veterans of the Spanish-American war to such an extent that they will become interested in the movement of making July 17 a national holiday.

Prominent military men, both on the active and retired list, who participated in the siege and subsequent surrender of Santiago de Cuba to General Shafter on that memorable July day in 1898, are expected to take advantage of this occasion to again unite with their "bunkies" with whom they fought shoulder to shoulder in liberating Cuba from the clutches of Spanish oppression.

When the system gets debilitated and in a run-down condition it needs a tonic and there has never been one discovered that is the equal of S. S. S. It is especially adapted for a systemic remedy, because it contains no strong minerals to derange the stomach and digestion, and affect the liver and bowels. It is made entirely of roots, herbs and barks selected for their purifying and healing qualities, and possesses just the properties that are needed to restore to the body strong, robust health. When the blood becomes impure and clogged with waste matters and poisons the body does not receive sufficient nourishment and suffers from debility, weakness, sleeplessness, nervousness, loss of appetite, bad digestion and many other disagreeable symptoms of a disordered blood circulation, and if it is not corrected some form of malignant fever or other dangerous disorder will follow. S. S. S. builds up the broken down constitution, clears the blood of all poisons and impurities and makes it strong and healthy. The nerves are restored to a calm, restful state, refreshing sleep is had again, the appetite returns and the whole system is toned up by this great remedy. S. S. S. is a blood purifier and tonic and acts promptly in this run-down, depleted condition of the system. Book on the blood and medical advice furnished by our physicians, without charge.
